You and your family can participate in the community efforts to relocate the Holy trinity bells to their new home at St. Malachy

Since the closing of Holy Trinity parish in Indianapolis in 2014, efforts have been underway to find a new home for the Holy Trinity bells. Behind the scenes, parishioners of St. Malachy, former parishioners of Holy Trinity, and members of St. Aloysius KSKJ (Slovenian) lodge have been working to make this dream a reality. They wanted to find a parish in need of this remarkable gift of the 113 year old set of bells. Weighing in at 3500 pounds, the three bells will be swinging once again with your help.

With generosity and sacrifice from parishioners, the KSKJ, and the Knights, the budget for this project has almost been realized. The bells have been completely restored to prepare them for their important future at St. Malachy, calling the faithful to Mass and signaling to Brownsburg and all of Hendrick County the faithfulness of St. Malachy parishioners.

You can demonstrate parish support while helping to erect the finishing touch for the St. Malachy campus by gifting a paver. Please prayerfully consider participating in this noble effort.
